

How is this different from cable? Should we take away the right of Americans to choose to pay for their entertainment, or are we only allowed to listen to "free" music and talk subject to frequent and annoying advertisements? I love my XM Radio and I enjoy my cable tv. Do not take away my right to purchase goods and stimulate the economy of this great United States of America.
Thank you.